

ABSTRACT

A storage bin is integrated into a ladder, providing secure storage for tools or other items used when working on a ladder. The storage bin is attached to the top step of the 5 ladder. On the upper surface of the ladder is a storage bin lid which opens to reveal the contents of the storage bin. The storage bin lid is securely held in the closed position by a latching mechanism. The storage bin may also include pockets or storage trays for tools or fasteners.

10